

Monthly Performance Survey

South African Exchange Traded Product (ETP) &
Index Tracking Unit Trust

June 2024

Mike Brown | Managing Director

The Performance Survey for the period ended 28 June 2024, has the following highlights.

- South African Referenced ETFs/AMCs are topping the performance tables for the shortest term period monitored – up to 3 months. This reflects the improvement in sentiment towards South African assets brought about by the General Election results and the subsequent establishment of a GNU Government in South Africa.

Although it is too early to tell what impact the coalition Government will bring to the South African economy and markets, particularly in the development of more favourable policies towards economic growth, bureaucratic efficiencies, streamlining of decision making and delivery of products and services, the financial markets reaction has been largely favourable to date.

This is reflected in the Satrix FINI 15 ETF, which tracks banks, insurance companies and other financial services providers; and the FNB MidCap ETF, which tracks JSE companies from 40 to 100 in terms of market capitalisation, both delivering double-digit investment returns for the 3 month period.

Also noticeable has been the good returns produced by some Actively Managed Certificate (AMC) providers that specifically benchmark the South African equity and other markets. Lucas Gray and Efficient Group are the asset managers that have produced noteworthy short-term returns.

- Income and Actively Managed Index Tracker Products – out of the total 226 Exchange Traded Products now listed on the JSE, 56 or some 25% are either Actively Managed Certificates (AMCs) or Actively Managed Exchange Traded Funds (AMETFs). Most activity by the ETF issuer companies now focuses on this actively managed sector of the market, with some specific platforms now also offering the facility to “white label” listed exchange traded products for active investment managers.

To date, the investment returns for these AMCs and AMETFs have been quite volatile, with few asset managers able to provide consistently high investment returns over various time periods. One stand-out product has been the Standard Bank Blue Horseshoe Fund (AMC004), which is run by BP Bernstein, JSE member stockbrokers. The portfolio consists of South African equities and bonds, plus some offshore ETFs that have a predominant focus on South Africa. Its 12 month return of 32,9% is the best of all index trackers surveyed for this period and is also a top performer over 3 months, with 14,4% total return.

- High-Tech ETFs and Unit Trusts – continue to dominate over the periods of 5 years or less. The Invest S&P Info Tech ETF, which has 100% exposure to US high technology securities and the Satrix Nasdaq 100 ETF which has 50% exposure to high-tech securities, are consistently high performers for this whole period.

The relatively newly listed Sygnia Itrix FANG.AI AMETF, which has a high exposure to the “magnificent seven” securities, has produced very good returns for the past 3 and 6 months.

Another stand-out is the UBS Metaverse (METVRS) ETN, which has been the highest performing index tracker over the one-year period, providing a 43,33% total return over the past 12 months. The metaverse mandate covers companies engaged in social media, digital payments, e-commerce, machine learning and the large language and other areas promoted by artificial intelligence.
